Missions/Vacation

June 12 – 23, 2009

Enjoy a 12-day missions/vacation tour using your professional talents to spread love and goodwill to those who could never afford your services. This year's mission's projects will feature providing meaningful contributions to our 1) Open Air Health Fairs (providing basic medical/dental/hygiene supplies, first aid and health education, music ministry), 2) Orphanages/Children's Hospital Wards, 3) and Ghanaian schools. The Missions Team Leaders are Mary Samba and Jennifer T. Randolph.

Rest and relax along the beautiful beaches of the great Atlantic Ocean on a tour of the Slave Castles in Cape Coast and Elmina. Take a walk on the "wild side" as you cross 7 canopy bridges suspended 126 feet above the tropical rainforest at Kakum National Park. Enjoy the tranquility of a boat cruise on the Volta River. Explore the modernization and the High Life of fine hotels, restaurants and African entertainment in the capital city – Accra. Reward yourself on several shopping expeditions for Ashanti gold jewelry, African apparel, wood carvings, fine traditional textiles, linens and accessories, musical instruments, and so much more!

Cost: $2,999 (Price includes round-trip airfare from Washington, DC; double occupancy in 3 and 4-star hotels; some gourmet meals and dinner shows; guided tours and ground transportation) Travel insurance prices range from $168 - $260.
